

MECHE ON-LINE THESIS SUBMISSION PROTOCOL/MAY 2020 DEGREE CANDIDATES

Step 1: Check to make sure the thesis title matches the approved title in WEBSIS. If you are changing your title in WEBSIS, be sure to let Leslie know.

Step 2: Submit the unsigned title and abstract pages to me-gradoffice@mit.edu for review (Please be sure that the degree date is May 2020 and NOT June 2020).

Step 3: Have your faculty Advisor authorize you to submit the PDF of the final version of the thesis to me-gradoffice@mit.edu (the faculty have been instructed to provide Leslie Regan with an e-mail confirming that the thesis is approved for submission). NO THESIS WILL BE ACCEPTED UNLESS LESLIE REGAN HAS THE E-MAIL AUTHORIZATION FROM THE FACULTY ADVISOR.

Step 4: Please follow instructions for formatting by accessing the MIT Library link:

<http://libraries.mit.edu/archives/thesis-specs/>

If you plan to submit a request to hold the thesis from publication, please inform the me-gradoffice@mit.edu upon submission of your thesis.

Thesis hold request forms should be signed by you (the student), then scanned or photographed and submitted to grad-ed@mit.edu with a cc: to your thesis supervisor for follow up approval, if an electronic signature cannot be obtained.
